

PENNSYLVANIA INSTITUTE OF HEALTH AND TECHNOLOGY
CONSORTIUM AGREEMENT FOR ONLINE COURSES
DISCLOSURES

On October 29, 2010, the Department of Education published final regulations that require institutions to disclose certain information to students and prospective students regarding consortium agreements.

1. Up to but never to exceed 49% of the program and may be offered through the host institution.
2. The name and location of the Home Institution is:

Pennsylvania Institute of Health and Technology
1015 Industrial Park Drive
Mount Braddock, PA 15465

The name and location of the Host institution providing the online training through the consortium agreement is:

West Virginia Junior College
148 Willey Street
Morgantown, WV 26505

3. Coursework will be delivered in an on line format through the host institution, West Virginia Junior College, Morgantown, WV.
4. The option to take online courses is included in the standard tuition and fees. Other costs that students may incur to take online classes include:

Estimated Cost

Personal Computer	Varies based on specifications
Internet Access	Varies based on location
Microsoft Office Suite	$150 - $500*

*Student discounts and free limited trials available.

The institution will make available, upon request, a copy of the documents describing the institution's accreditation and its State license and the contact information for filing complaints with the accreditor and or state licensing entity. To request this information, contact the institution's Campus President.