

INSTITUTIONAL CODE OF CONDUCT FOR EDUCATION LOANS

Pennsylvania Institute of Health and Technology is committed to providing students and their families with the best information and processing alternatives available regarding student borrowing. In support of this and in an effort to rule out any perceived or actual conflict of interest between Pennsylvania Institute of Health and Technology officers, employees or agents and education loan lenders, Pennsylvania Institute of Health and Technology has adopted the following Code of Conduct:

- Pennsylvania Institute of Health and Technology does not participate in any revenue-sharing arrangements with any lender.
- Pennsylvania Institute of Health and Technology does not permit any officer, employee or agent of the school who is employed in the financial aid office or is otherwise involved in the administration of education loans to accept any gifts of greater than a nominal value from any lender, guarantor or servicer.
- Pennsylvania Institute of Health and Technology does not permit any officer, employee or agent of the school who is employed in the financial aid office or is otherwise involved in the administration of education loans to accept any fee, payment or other financial benefit (including a stock purchase option) from a lender or affiliate of a lender as compensation for any type of consulting arrangement or contract to provide services to a lender or on behalf of a lender relating to education loans.
- Pennsylvania Institute of Health and Technology does not permit any officer, employee or agent of the school who is employed in the financial aid office or is otherwise involved in the administration of education loans to accept anything of value from a lender, guarantor, or group of lenders and/or guarantors in exchange for service on an advisory board, commission or other group established by such a lender, guarantor group of lenders and/or guarantors. Pennsylvania Institute of Health and Technology does allow for the reasonable reimbursement of expenses associated with participation in such boards, commissions or groups by lenders, guarantors, or groups of lenders and/or guarantors.
- Pennsylvania Institute of Health and Technology does not assign a lender to any first-time borrower through financial aid packaging or any other means.
- Pennsylvania Institute of Health and Technology recognizes that a borrower has the right to choose any lender from which to borrow to finance his/her education. Pennsylvania Institute of Health and Technology will not refuse to certify or otherwise deny or delay certification of a loan based on the borrower's selection of a lender and/or guarantor.
- Pennsylvania Institute of Health and Technology will not request or accept any offer of funds to be used for private education loans to students from any lender in exchange for providing the lender with a specified number or volume of Title IV loans, or a preferred lender arrangement for Title IV loans.
- Pennsylvania Institute of Health and Technology will not request or accept any assistance with call center or financial aid office staffing.

This code will be evaluated periodically and enforced by the institution. Any officer, employee or agent of the institution in violation of any part of this code will be subject to disciplinary proceedings up to termination of employment if so warranted.
